Ehrhoff (6-2,kids nba jerseys, 203) played on the Canucks' No. 1 power play unit and would be a huge addition to the Buffalo blueline. But he's almost certain to want a deal of at least $5 million a season. Maybe closer to $6 million. He will turn 29 next Wednesday.

Ehrhoff wrapped up a three-year,customized nba jersey, $9.3 million contract with the Canucks last season. He played with San Jose for six seasons before being traded to Vancouver in 2009. He reportedly turned down a five-year, $23 million offer to stay with Vancouver and rejected even more from the Islanders.
